

SUNIL GARGA

President and Chief Executive Officer, Foundation Source

Sunil Garga is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Foundation Source, the nation's largest provider of management solutions for private foundations. He is responsible for the vision, strategy, and growth of the company with a goal of increasing its capabilities for private foundations and the broader philanthropic community.

Mr. Garga also oversees strategic investments in people and technology that complement the company's deep expertise in private foundation management and in providing expert consulting and technology solutions that help clients pursue their philanthropic visions and establish their legacies.

A visionary leader and entrepreneur, Mr. Garga has a 25-year record of helping companies realize their potential. He is the founder of two successful and forward-thinking companies that, like Foundation Source, combine professional services, technology, and consulting. Under his leadership, both firms delivered highly innovative industry-leading solutions to major companies and achieved tremendous growth.
